The job(s) that keeps me going...

My calling in nursing is working on and searching for models of care that are impactful and meaningful for patients and healthcare providers. In my 24 years of nursing career since 1996, I have found that one of the best ways to answer my calling is to continuously develop and invest in nurses; hence my passion in leadership, professional development, mental resilience and healthcare innovation. I currently serve as an Assistant Director of Nursing (Clinical and Education) in Alexandra Hospital.

What I enjoy cracking my head over and learning in nursing...

- Leadership and Professional Development
- Pedagogical Leadership
- Mental Resilience
- Innovation and Healthcare redesign

If I have time, I would spend some/more of it in...

- Traveling
- Reading and writing
- Gaming
- Tinkering
