

Profile: Margaret Lee

The job(s) that keeps me going...

I began nursing practice in 1996 in a critical care setting at the National University Hospital (NUH). Over the span of my calling, I've had the opportunity to assume various roles and serve in domains such as liver dialysis and transplantation, quality and safety, as well as various numerous medicine-related specialties. In 2018, I moved to Alexandra Hospital (AH) to assume the role of Chief Nurse leading Alex Nursing under the National University Health System (NUHS).

What I enjoy cracking my head over and learning in nursing...

- Strategic Planning and Development
- Leadership and Career Development
- Nursing Role Advancement
- Collaborative Practice Development

If I have time, I would spend some/more of it in...

- Mountain Biking
- Urban Hiking
- Touring historic sites of WWII
- Writing
