The job(s) that keeps me going...

I am currently the Chief Nursing Officer, Ministry of Health. I started my first job as a Staff Nurse at the Alexandra Hospital in 1993 and was rotated to work at Singapore General Hospital and KK Hospital in the first 2 years. I eventually settled down in KK Women's & Children's Hospital and stayed on for 19 years there and I am grateful to be trained as a Midwife by the hospital. I moved on to Changi General Hospital in 2014 and served as its Chief Nurse till 2020, before taking on my current role at MOH.

What I enjoy cracking my head over and learning in nursing...

- Building a future ready nursing workforce
- Advancing nursing roles and practices
- Leadership and talent development
- Staff resilience and well-being

If I have time, I would spend some/more of it in...

- Yoga and jogging
- Nature walks and hiking
- Reading
- Travelling
